

CONFIDENTIAL

UNITED STATES
ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20545

*File: DCID FILE.
Sept. Staffing*

SEP 3 1970

Chairman
Computer Security Subcommittee
Office of Security, Room 4E38
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

25X1

Dear

25X1

The proposed Director of Central Intelligence Directive (DCID) 1/16 entitled "Minimum Security Requirements for Compartmented Operation of Remotely Accessed Resource-Sharing Computer Systems in a Controlled Top Secret Environment" is approved for referral to the USIB, Information Handling and Security Committees, subject to incorporation of the reference to Sections 141 and 143 of the Atomic Energy Act, in addition to those presently referenced.

Sincerely,

Raymond J. Brady
for Raymond J. Brady, AEC Member
Computer Security Subcommittee

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

This material contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the espionage laws, Title 18, U.S.C., Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

CONFIDENTIAL

Page Denied

Next 9 Page(s) In Document Denied